*Student life on the cobblestone campus is different from the average university. Back sidewalks, cobbled alleyways and a minimum of grass compounded by a maximum of asphalt parking lots and busy thoroughfares all combine to set R. P. I. aside as a unique physical plant of higher learning . . .
each campus is defined as much by its particular atmosphere as by its academic reputation and physical setting. The shuffle of education begins with the confusion of drawn out registration and the insecurity of new town, new restrictions and new friends and carries through the next four years with classes, parties, walks in the cemetery, romance, solitude—it ends, for about one-third of those who begin, with a degree.*

During four years of student life at R. P. I. every individual passes by lamp post after lamp post as he engages in the various academic curricular and extra-curricular activities —labs and lectures, a beer with a friend, bull sessions in the dorms, and a hundred other things remembered and valued by each person alone. But although the student sees the light he never stops or takes time to see his activity in the glow by the light. In the pages of this book we the Cobblestone staff would like to show the student his daily environment as seen

BEYOND THE LIGHT . . .

Are any of these scenes familiar to you? Well if you look closely the photos contained herein are scenes many students see every day.

Neither snow, nor sleet, nor rain, nor wind, nor dark or night can keep the student from his destiny.
Weather effects every planned activity and provides new ones for R.P.I. students.

Down comes the old and up goes the new. Steadily R.P.I. has its face lifted to make way for more classrooms and a greater student population.

The power of concentration runs far afield, from the contemplation of an artist's palette to the stretch-for-comfort in a warm classroom.

WHEREVER STUDENTS WORK, THEY ARE NEVER OUT OF REACH OF THE SURROUNDING LIGHT.

Regardless of the surroundings in which a student finds himself there is always a silent shouting which fills his ears with a feeling of passive awareness, a contact with the physical and intellectual worlds through which he moves on his own cloud of interests. Day in, day out, wherever the student goes, whatever he does, there is no escaping the "growing pains" of the mind which come with the intellectual increase gained through higher education.

Relaxation is the ability to stop the world for a short time, take a deep breath and exhale all the problems, tension, and fears of the mind right straight out of your body. The nicest feeling in the world is to kick your problems in the head and go off somewhere and laugh at a funny movie, or walk in a springtime park, or see a good play. Or perhaps your ideal relaxation method is female companionship. Relaxation hits many people in many ways. After studies build up for a couple of hours what could be more relaxing than to beat a track to the Village for pizza and beer? Relaxation is the stimulation in our academic and social lives.

Every day, every moment, the student's life is filled with busy routines. For those who participate in extra-curricular activities there is the satisfaction of extra accomplishment. For those who do not participate there is wonder why things do not satisfy them. But regardless of whether or not a person gives fully of himself, there is always a feeling of companionship to be felt among the throngs of individuals who inhabit our campus. Human contact is rich and satisfying, be it personal contact with a particular large, jovial spirit who sells books, or via the U. S. Mail, and the more we have of it, the better we feel.

THE RICHES OF CAMPUS LIFE MANIFEST THEMSELVES IN SINCERITY OF STUDY AND THE REWARD OF SUCCESS.

The daily grind of the classroom routine is frustrating to no end if the aims of education are temporarily lost to the student. But solace may be found in the reward which comes with the successful fulfillment of required academic learning.

. . . With the jungle of urban life crushing in on us from all sides and a snarl of traffic creeping down the pavement which forms the main portion of R.P.I.'s campus, who could feel the free, silent spirit which pulsates in the veins of our college and nurtures in every one of us the will to learn, love, grow freely, and willfully improve our minds in order to throw off the shackles of archaic ignorance which burden our modern world? To the casual observer there is little here to see or feel: brick sidewalks speak of the past and dead ideals; asphalt parking lots speak of the present and the need to accommodate more and more of the lazy man's biceps tremoris, the automobile; but what the casual onlooker does not see, is the mind of the student, the hope for a better tomorrow. R.P.I. is different. There are comparatively few campuses in the country which hold their students to the narrow regimentation of an old city center. But the experience gained from living in this environment is beyond the understanding of many. Where else could you feel the bitter strictness of a senile mind, or keep daily contact with the low rent dwellings which breed pestilence, poverty and perversion?
 And the memories of cobblestone living: a fire up the alley which smoked out a party or two, campus elections when most of the vigorous excitement was generated by the candidates, the near miss Covington concert at Mid-Winters, the gallons of beer consumed by those with and those without proper I.D. No, our campus isn't beautiful—unless you are willing to open both eyes and hearts and listen to the mute voices of the past speak of their by gone glory. But we who study here, and those of us who live in the dorms, as well as those who do not, depart from R.P.I. with gifts of education which are not common to every American campus. There is an ominous rumbling deep within our school's foundations, a sign that the giant is awakening and soon will stand to proclaim for all to hear the wonderous attributes of our cobblestone campus, this, our R.P.I.

DEAN OF STUDENTS

DEAN OF WOMEN

FACULTY

THE PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE, DR. GEORGE J. OLIVER

With dignity and enthusiasm befitting a man of his position, Dr. George J. Oliver, R.P.I.'s top administrator is preparing to shift R.P.I. to independent standing when the separation from William and Mary is completed this summer. During his three years as head of R.P.I., Dr. Oliver has guided the school to greater heights as an institute of professional learning. Dr. Oliver's warmth of character and cheerful drive to push forward have strongly increased R.P.I.'s Community-school relations.

DEAN OF STUDENTS,
JAMES D. PENDLETON

Now rounding out his first year as Dean of Students, Mr. Pendleton has aptly proved his worth by establishing better student-administration relations. Aside from his work as Dean of Students, Mr. Pendleton is also an instructor of English and acts in an advisory capacity to the staff of the COBBLESTONE and the Student Finance Committee. Mr. Pendleton's youthful understanding helps him to communicate easily on both student and administration levels.

DEAN OF WOMEN,
JANE BELL GLADDING

Mrs. Jane Bell Gladding is another person who divides her time between teaching and her duties as Dean of Women. Associated with the chemistry department for several years, Mrs. Gladding assumed the duties of womens' dean three years ago. Knowledge of her cheerful attitude toward her relations with the women residents on campus as well as her close association with the Women's Inter-dormitory Council have won Mrs. Gladding the respect she deserves.

DEAN OF MEN,
RICHARD E. MACDOUGALL

A busy man since he came to R.P.I. three years ago, Mr. MacDougall has served as the manager of 712 Men's Dorm and Assistant to the Dean of Students before his promotion to Dean of Men this past fall.

CLASSES

We came to this campus of cobblestones for a new and unique experience; an experience in learning. We each went our different ways, absorbing our different interests. But even though we were specialized, we still were as one, working and having fun together.

As we leave here, we know we have gained a new perspective. We have learned to live with others and with ourselves. But we know that as we leave, a part of all this will go with us, an ever present reminder of the wonderful years, the happy times, spent on this campus.

A selection of seniors sit in the "LINEUP" and absorb a bit of cool sandstone atmosphere.

Some of the crew chat casually in front of the classroom building that Henry built.

The confusing complexity of William and Mary Mews seems to have this group puzzled.

ESCALATOR TO THE THIRD FLOOR—THE JUNIOR CLASS

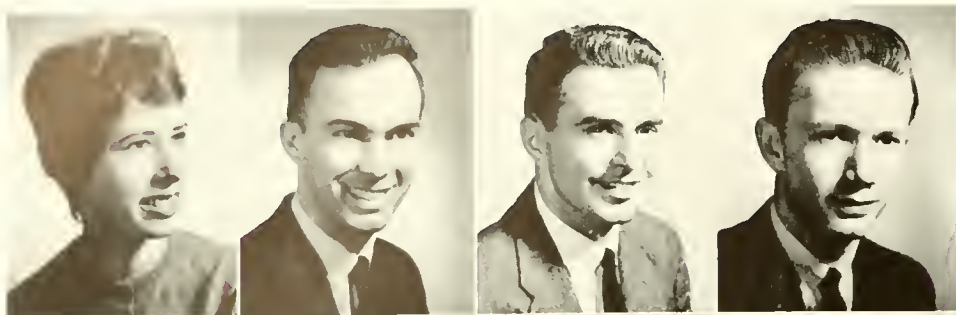

The tribe of Liliputian lovelies plus guard shown below led the junior class triumphantly through the battle of freshman domination at Rat Week to the sophisticated close of the school year at the May Dance. The junior class openly led the field in many of the topics of importance to both the class and the school as a whole.

And even if Pat Riddle does look as though her lollipop is telling her an important story, we must give credit to those shown below, top to bottom, left to right, for their efforts: M. Zeigler, Pres., G. Crawford, Veep, C. Williams, Sec., Dee Dee Bishop, Treas., B. Jenks, S.G.A. Rep., and P. Riddle, Alt. S.G.A. Rep.

Warren Covington and his wife entertained at the junior class sponsored Mid Winters soiree. Below we find Pres. Maggie happily shipwrecked on a confetti isle, complete with palm tree and native dancers.

ROUND OUT THE YEAR.

The jargon of freshman horseplay livened up cafeteria hours during Rat Week. Here we see a fatal reminder of the "Turkish Date." But, alas, the Juniors got their due, as Turn-about day put the Freshmen in the cat bird seat and the Juniors on the hot seat. The Junior Rat Court members will ne'er forget the peanut butter facial, egg shampoo or the African Boomerang.

Officers: Steve Yearick, President; Kathy Trainer, Vice-President; Gene Arlington, S.G.A. Rep.; Ed Pernell, Treasurer; Shirley Critzer, Secretary.

POWER PACK FOR '64—SOPHOMORE CLASS

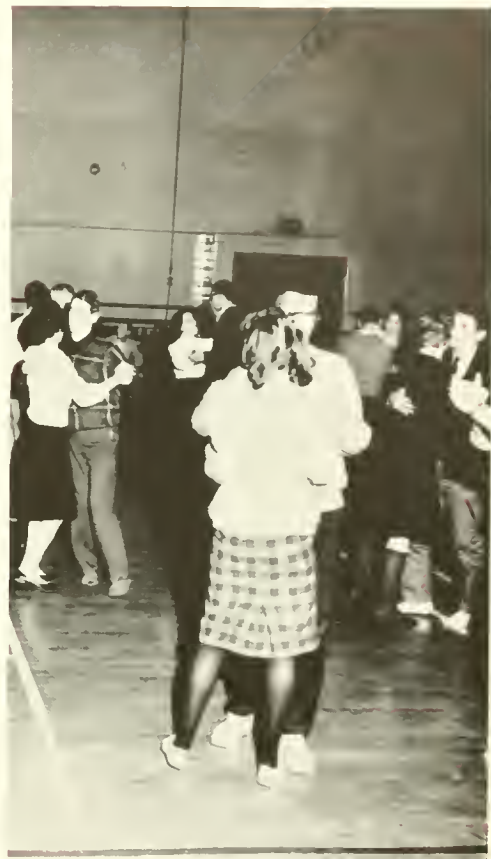

Two years of R.P.I. life is behind us—we have reached the halfway mark, and as we stop to reflect upon the past years' activities we wonder how they could have slipped by so quickly.

We look back on two years of memories—some sad—most of them happy—and on our accomplishments and activities like "Openings" and the "Shout Parties."

Ahead are two more years that we can look forward to, for they will bring increased knowledge and the warm feeling of activities shared with old friends and new. Such thoughts help us to face the future confidently.

Sophomore Class presented two Shout Parties with R.P.I.'s famous Specks on the banostand.

DYNAMIC TENSION: A JACK-IN-THE BOX OF VERSATILITY—FRESHMAN CLASS

This year's Freshman Class was not only the largest in the school's history but also the most active. R.P.I. will benefit for many years to come with these ambitious individuals. The freshmen were oriented into the social life of the school with the traditional Rat Week, which was the high point of the year.

As the COBBLESTONE goes to press the Freshman Class is completing plans for the annual May Day activities. This includes parent's weekend, a concert, participation in the spring carnival, and to climax the festivities a dance held at the Mosque with a well known orchestra.

All of these things prepare freshmen for the next three years of active participation in the campus life at R.P.I.

The Pancake Supper sponsored by the Freshman class was something new at R.P.I. and was a success.

R.P.I.'s voice of the multitudes, the PROSCRIPT, prints the news as it sees fit. The paper is a product of the Department of Journalism and is a training aid to those students who will be going into newspaper work. The PROSCRIPT has been the recipient of many awards in past years which have set it aside as a distinguished collegiate publication.

VOICE OF THE MULTITUDES—THE PROSCRIPT

David Burton
Editor-in-Chief

Pictured above is the capable staff of the 1962 PROSCRIPT organization. Though the staff works fiendishly hard, late into the night to produce each weekly paper, many of the publication's staff have done extra work on R.P.I.'s literary supplement, THE IMAGE.

The 1962 COBBLESTONE marks a milestone in yearbook progress. From a new publisher and a highly sensitive volunteer staff have come fresh new ideas which will make this publication a book to remember for many years to come. The staff started four months behind schedule, and any other staff might have had a tendency to drop the whole affair. But the spirit generated by the staff itself showed those concerned that there was courage behind the COBBLESTONE'S convictions. Triumphantlly the staff waded through yards of production prerequisites in order to get the ball rolling. And once it was going there was no stopping COBBLESTONE 62.

As justice to those who worked behind the scenes and were lost in the shuffle as this book went piece by piece to press, herein is given credit to Pete Mathena for the drawings used in sections throughout the book, and to Ben Bookout who set up the class sections. Also we must consider Hypo, our extra photographer in tight situations.

THE BALANCE OF JUSTICE

The Student Honor Council has made with unsurpassed wisdom the decisions in cases intrusted to them. By number their work is small but by importance they are the epitome of justice.

THE TOP OF THE MARK

S.G.A.'s Executive Committee have met regularly to consider the best course of action to take in guiding S.G.A. and the student body. They are the navigators of a sea of red tape and steadfast tradition.

The dedicated students of S.G.A. represent the various groups and organizations to be found on R.P.I.'s cobblestone campus. With discretion and carefully chosen actions these members promote the best interest of their clubs and the school as a whole.

EVAPORATED EFFERVESCENCE:
THE DAY STUDENT'S LEAGUE

Gone from the campus scene is the Day Student's League. The members are still here, but the club and the interest which should have promoted it are gone. Though a shoot of this large plant sprang eagerly upward in the fall of the school year, it soon withered and died, a victim of the blistered atmosphere of clique snobbery which fostered it. Come on Day Students, show R.P.I. you can give her the support she needs!

The large dorm which sits on the corner of Park Avenue has long been known to the students here at R. P. I. as 828. Although it is a fairly large women's dormitory the young ladies who call it "home at R. P. I." enjoy its friendly atmosphere and hospitality.

Voices of all kinds ring through its halls as the girls make lasting friendships with others in this house.

828 PARK AVENUE

Music often is an outlet for expression of various moods. Roommates practicing the twist to be in shape for the next swinging party, or solitude—a lonely tune on the guitar.

Officers for this year are: Linda Mount, Treasurer; Carolyn Hodges, Vice-President; LaRue Nettles, President; Marla Lehman, Secretary; Rea Goliffa, Freshman Representative.

Strange things are happening in the bathroom.

Skit time at 828.

RITTER-HICKOK

Officers: T. Freeman, Pres.; E. Mason, V. Pres.; J. Britt, Sec.; B. Clark, Treas.; S. Bissel, Fresh. Rep.

Everyone at R. P. I. will remember the yellow dorm with the large white columns but will they remember that it was built in 1855 and is one of the historical homes of Richmond? In this old but elegant house many R. P. I. girls have spent four happy years in their home away from home. Tears, joy, work and play will be remembered by all girls who lived in and loved Ritter-Hickok.

928 PARK

The newest of the R. P. I. women's dormitories is the home of a very small group of girls. With its new and lovely interior, the dorm welcomes all who enter there. Because the group is small the girls feel they get to know one another so much better than in other large dorms. This closeness allows the girls to share many experiences both in class work and outside activities.

Officers this year: Susan Lively, Treas.; Katy Heinz, Sec.; Bridget Sheridan, Pres.; Pat Smith, V. Pres.; Anne Sanders, Freshman Representative.

SCHERER HALL

The only dormitory with five floors and an elevator to transport its 94 young ladies is Scherer Hall. Although it's a long walk to the cafeteria and to classes, the girls don't seem to mind.

Because of the large number of residents in this dorm, the girls learn to know well others in every department on campus. The friendships made, the hours of studying, the numerous night-life activities will always be remembered by the girls of Scherer Hall.

Officers are: Chris Fayle, Treas.; Lucy Blair, Pres.; Donna Greene, Freshman Rep.; Susan Meade, V. Pres.; Virginia Team, Sec.

ANDERSON HOUSE

Officers: M. Revere, Pres.; A. Blondin, V.P.; J. Halter, Sec.; J. Price, Treas.; J. Frazier, Fresh. Rep.

Another small house but with a very pleasant atmosphere is Anderson House, better known as 913 dorm. It is situated in the middle of the 900 block of West Franklin Street and has an interior staircase balcony that holds many memories for the girls who live there. Many of its girls are represented in various R. P. I. activities.

MEREDITH HOUSE

Officers: P. Richardson, Pres.; J. Poindexter, V.P.; S. Combs, Treas.; M. Woods, Fresh. Rep.

Meredith House is one of the larger dormitories at R. P. I. and its girls from all walks of life learn to work together in a very unified atmosphere. All the girls who live in this dorm will cherish the memories they have had together, always remembering especially their famous Christmas skits and spring parties.

LEE HOUSE

The home of forty-one young ladies is a familiar sight on campus. The parties, television, bridge, snowball fights, sunglasses days, studying, jokes, laughs, tears, and happiness shared by all the girls in Lee House have helped each to grow in character and to be better prepared for their place in the future.

Officers: L. Timberlake, Sec.; S. Burston, Fresh. Rep.; M. Fitzhugh, Treas.; P. Murray, Vice President; A. Weirick, President.

After hours get-togethrs—always a gas.

Some have it,
some don't.

Cop on the corner—twisting in the parlor.

FOUNDERS HALL

Officers: T. Shepherd, Pres.; G. McKenzie, V.P.; N. Perricelli, Sec.; A. Glazener, Treas.; missing, G. Hamilton.

With easy access to classes, the cafeteria, and R. P. I. functions, is the largest dorm at R. P. I., Founders Hall. Its many rooms; its north, south, east, and west halls; its large parlors; and its staircase help to make Founders an intriguing part of the lives of its young ladies. Living in such a large house requires a great deal of adaptability on the part of each girl but through the years it has proved to be the home of one big happy family.

The largest boys' dormitory both in size and residents located across from Monroe Park is 712 Dorm. The men's infirmary is housed in this dorm also. All the way from the boiler room in the basement to the penthouse on the fourth floor, one finds a variety of men from every walk of life and every section of the country, all with one common goal—increasing their education at R. P. I.

712 DORM

312 MEN'S DORMITORY

Officers: Dave Warren, Treas.; J. Watkins, Pres.; T. Alphin, Sec.; D. Hughes, V. P.

The home of predominantly Freshman men students, is 312 Dormitory located at 312 Shafer Street. It is close to R. P. I. classes, the cafeteria, and other activities. Although it has a pint size living room its occupants don't mind because they are seldom all together since they have varied interests and activities. They do however, learn a great deal from living with others in dorm life.

THE HILLEL FOUNDATION

The Hillel Foundation is devoted to the religious, cultural, and counseling activities of the Jewish student at Richmond Professional Institute. Their varied programs consist of movies, discussions, and addresses. Through these programs the students are given a deeper understanding of their faith. In addition to this the group has many and varied social affairs that are enjoyed by all members of the organization.

Officers: Adams, Pres.;
Rev. Baker; Cox, Treas.;
Vaughn, Rapp, Saunders,
Cousins, Terrell,
SGA Rep.

THE CANTERBURY CLUB

The Canterbury Club unites Episcopal Students in fellowship and helps them to integrate and interpret the knowledge they are gaining in the light of the Church's teaching.

The group meets each week for supper and discussion at St. James Episcopal Church, just one block off campus.

Officers: Beale, Sec.;

THE BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

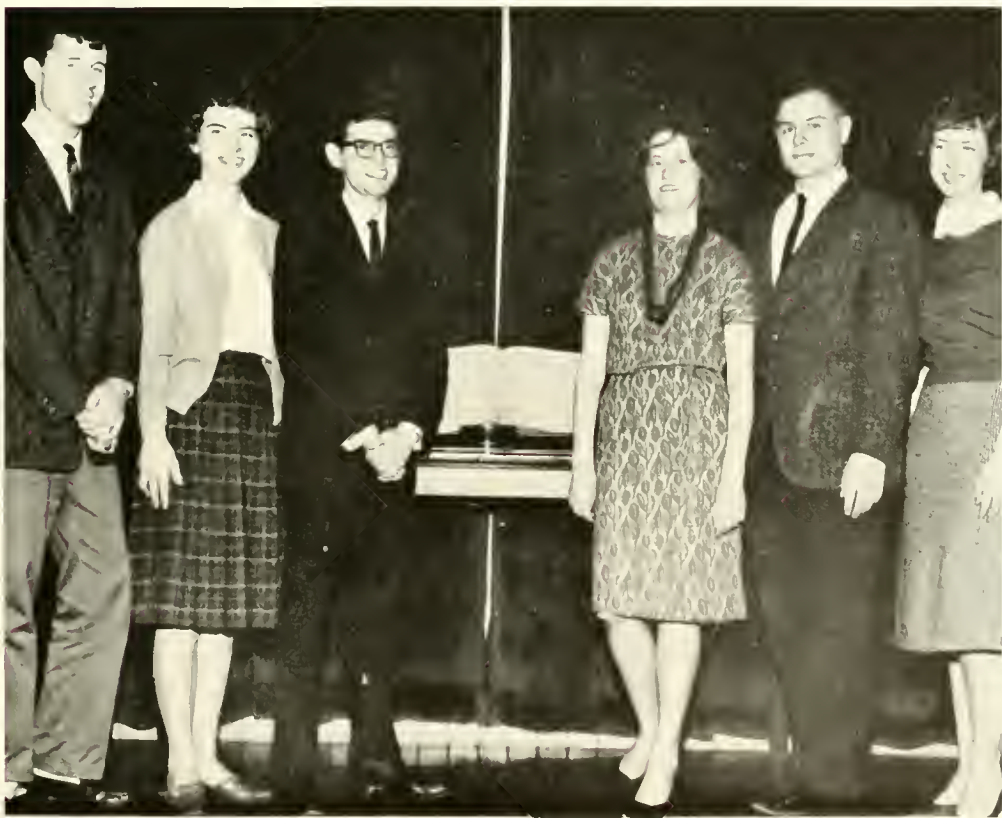

The Baptist Student Union provides a strongly forged link between the Baptist students on campus and the local Baptist churches of the community through weekly meetings of panel discussions, movies, and fellowship suppers, the Baptist Student Union instills a high religious value of life, and helps the students to share their solutions to life's common problems.

The Wesley Foundation administers to the spiritual needs of the Methodist students through fellowship, worship, and recreation. It provides the students with an opportunity to make use of their ideas and talents for the betterment of their church and faith. The students also discuss mutual problems and find answers within the framework of their church.

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION

Officers: Bookout, SGA Rep.; Cobb, SGA Alt.; Murray, Pres.; Rigney, V-Pres.; Williams, Sec.-Treas.; Heisler, Motive Chairman.

CHURCH, SCHOOL AFFILIATIONS

Richmond provides an extensive number of churches from which the student may choose his particular affiliation. On this page are shown two of the larger churches which are known particularly to R.P.I. students. The graceful lines of each of these two churches set them off as examples of superb beauty. But the personal warmth of each congregation provides the stimulus for R.P.I. students to worship there.

Officers: Brown, Program Chairman; Sinclair, V-Pres.; Conner, Social Chairman; Brownlee, Advisor; Brownlee, Advisor; Womble, Pres.

THE WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP

The Westminster Fellowship provides fellowship of Christian students seeking a deeper understanding of the Presbyterian faith and its implications of life. It works towards relating the Christian faith to the various phases of academic and social life on the campus.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF DESIGNERS STUDENT CHAPTER

The student chapter of the American Institute of Designers is affiliated with the national organization of the same name. Its main objective is to bring the students who are studying this profession closer to their vocation. This is achieved by speakers already in the field and by trips to various places pertaining to interior design. This year the club went to the Dupont Museum, Winterthur, in Wilmington, Delaware and to Philadelphia to tour museums and historical homes and fabric mills. Every year the group also entertains the Virginia Chapter of the A.I.D.

Everyone remembers when the ole bed broke down.

Phi Beta Lambda is a student chapter of the national division of Phi Beta Lambda. It is composed of business majors at R.P.I. Its purpose is to develop a genuine interest in business and a close bond between its members. During the year the club's activities have consisted of a hayride, publishing the student directory, a Christmas dance, participation in the May Carnival, and the famous slave sale. Aside from its social activities special speakers from the realm of business speak at the meetings.

What am I bid for this fine young slave?

Oh, please master.

Queen of the Slaves, Dedie Knox.

Officers, left to right: Mrs. Mundy, Advisor; Landreth, V-Pres.; Medlin, Pres.; Ellis, Treas.; Proctor, SGA Rep.; George, Sec.

Inspiration is the keyword of the fashion club this year. They hope to inspire the students of R.P.I. to recognize the importance of fashion on campus. Some of their projects include, making and dressing Christmas dolls for children at M.C.V., selling donuts in the dorms, and having guest speakers on furs, advertising, and milinery. Hats off to the fashion club.

FASHION CLUB

Dress designing starts with an idea, then a drawing, then the finished product.

Psi Chi is the only national honorary fraternity on campus. The membership requirements are twelve hours completed in psychology and a person must be taking six hours in psychology at the present time, for a total of eighteen hours. A 2.0 average is required. The function of this organization is to promote interest in the field of psychology and psychiatry. This is accomplished by films, guest lecturers, experiments, and field trips. The club maintains a scholarship fund for deserving students in psychology.

SOCIETY FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF MANAGEMENT

The Society for the Advancement of Management, the recognized national professional organization of managers in industry, commerce, government and education, and the pioneer in management philosophy, has been dedicated to the advancement of management and of management men and women since 1912 when the original Taylor Society was established.

Its funny how the names of egotist often are forgotten, therefore the members of this club will go unidentified.

EGOTIST CLUB

There are egotist everywhere. But here at R.P.I. a few of the most egotistical guys have joined together to form a club bearing the same name. They are often seen on campus trying to toot their own horn to some innocent coed. Watch out girls you might be next!

The Accidental Club is made up of students enrolled in the School of Music at R.P.I. The members must belong to either the band or chorus or some other musical activity on campus. The club's purpose is to promote a better understanding and appreciation of music. This is done by bringing to the students a series of concerts by well known groups and individuals. An example would be the Mozart Trio that performed here in November.

WOMEN'S RECREATION ASSOCIATION

1961 marked the re-establishment of the WRA, after five years of dormancy. The purpose of this organization is to offer to all women students the opportunity to participate in athletics, intramural and varsity, dances, recreation, and other gymnastics; to develop and promote a spirit of friendliness, companionship, and sportsmanship; and to endeavor to analyze and develop the recreational opportunities of the campus.

Officers: Jenkins, Pres.; Blackwell, SGA Rep.; Terrell, Treas.; Meiers, SGA Rep.; Sembler, Sec.; Williams, V-Pres.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS CLUB

The members of this new campus organization are vitally interested in the function of their government and how they, as Americans, can better understand and serve its ideals and purpose.

The were host this February to the state convention of Virginia Federation of Young Republican Clubs.

Occupational Therapy is the scientific application of any activity, mental or physical, prescribed by a physician and administered by a trained therapist for the purpose of hastening recovery from disease or injury. Closer contact with the professional world and better understanding of their profession is a main objective of the members of the club. Programs include speakers, panel discussions, and vocational demonstrations. Special activities include joint meetings and programs with cerebral palsy groups. Each year is highlighted by the annual spring banquet.

The girls tennis team is a comparatively new sport at R.P.I. The girls begin practicing at the sign of Spring. Every afternoon they can be found at Byrd Park swinging the rackets to get in shape for their competitive matches. Although a small team the girls face each new season with an open minded outlook for the matches to come.

GOLF TEAM

In its second season this year the R.P.I. Golf Team finds itself gaining experience with the help of Mr. Hugh Gordon an old time playing pro, who has been the pro at the Roanoke Country Club, The Tides Inn, and several clubs in the northeast. The team feels that next year they should be a real contender for the Little Eight Teams which they play. At this point in the season they hold a 4-3 record.

CHEERLEADERS

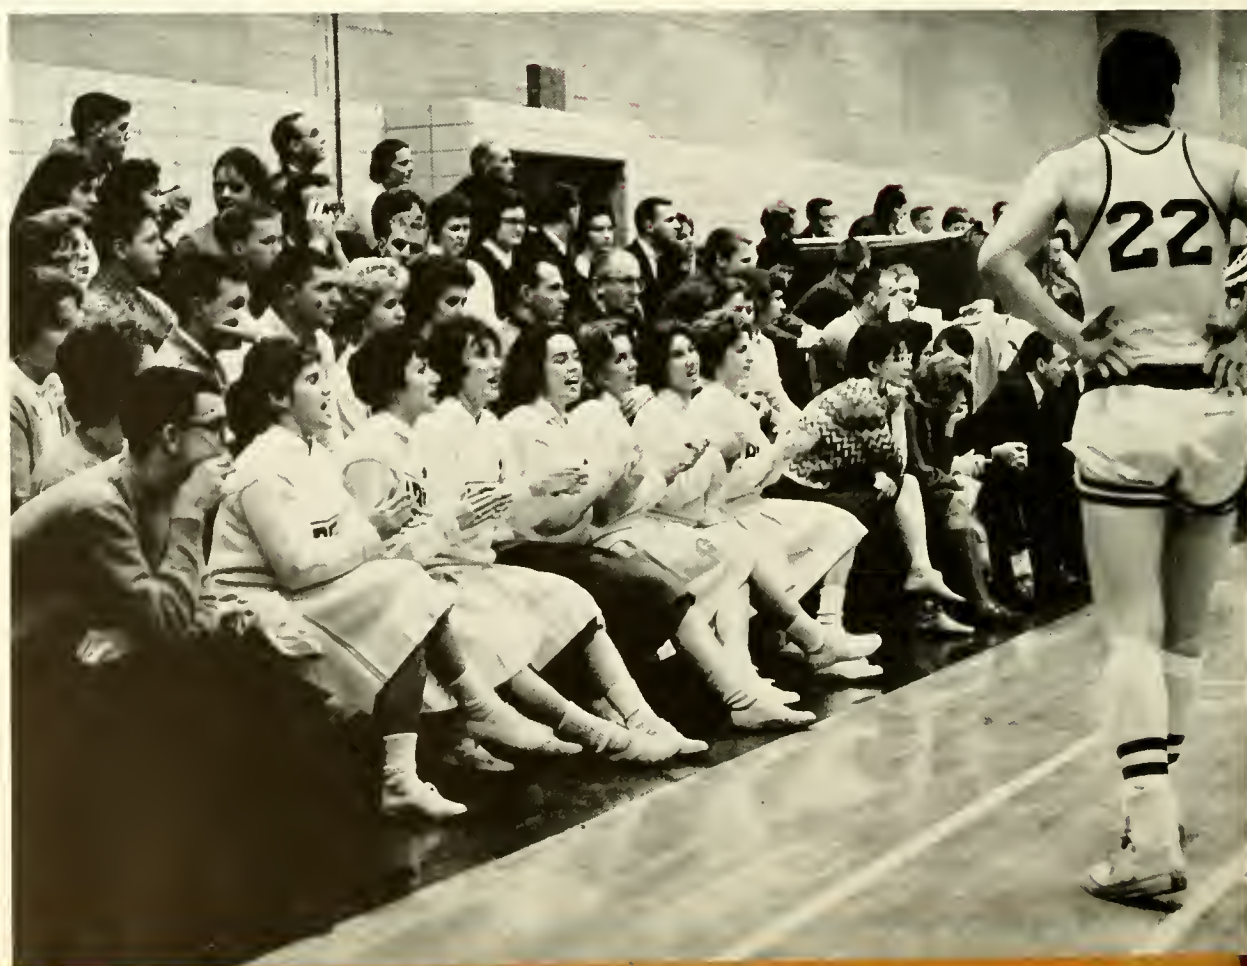

Top to bottom: Mitchell, Chiet, Hyler, Bowman, Wolfe, Caseino, Klotzman, Martin.

An important part of the R.P.I. sports activities are the cheerleaders. They support all the men's basketball games, both home and away. They furnish the team with a portion of the needed school spirit for such events. The girls practice hard and their presence is greatly felt throughout the season.

With school behind you . . . what's ahead?

College, perhaps? Wonderful! A job? Wonderful, too, if it's the right one—with opportunities to progress and learn as well as earn. There are many such jobs at C&P, waiting for girls like you. In a telephone job, you not only start with good pay but are specially trained to make more. Raises and advancements are frequent. Surroundings are pleasant—people are friendly—and your work is never dull. Why not make your first job a telephone job—one that can lead to a happy, rewarding career?

A Reddy [®] LESSON
IN BETTER LIVING!

The world has changed a lot since the days of the dunce cap and the blackboard slate.

Today it's a brighter, better world to live in.

One change that helped was the big change to MODERN ELECTRIC LIVING. Today, private enterprise is supplying more power to more people in more ways than ever before. What does this mean to you? More jobs, for one thing . . . created by greater use of electricity. More leisure, too . . . due to labor saving electric devices and equipment.

Add it up. The score's in your favor. It's BETTER LIVING—ELECTRICALLY—in the bright new world of today!

VIRGINIA ELECTRIC AND POWER COMPANY

Now that production of the 1962 COBBLESTONE is coming to a close I find it difficult to express my feelings of the past year. Although the staff was late beginning production and organization was complete chaos at times, we have lived through it. We the staff (a measley few we were) have worked and fought at times to give R.P.I. a new look and a new idea in a yearbook. If we have in some way made the beginnings of a bigger and better publication then our efforts will be justified.

The COBBLESTONE staff acknowledges: James D. Pendleton for acting as an advisor to us and for helping us through our trials and tribulations; Rick Heidloff, an unsung hero who wasn't on the staff but worked numerous hours writing copy for the book. Wray-Seldon Photographers for class portraits.

The 1962 COBBLESTONE was printed in letterpress by Foote & Davies, Inc. in Atlanta, Georgia. The cover was designed and manufactured by the S. K. Smith Company in Chicago and the engravings were made by the Jahn and Ollier Engraving Company in Chicago.

We would also like to say thank you to Mr. Ralph Van Dyke who worked so closely with us and without his help we would "never" have made it.

This is it . . .
